

Do you have your GNDI Global Passport?

The Global Passport, a new program by the Global Network of Director Institutes (GNDI), will unlock access to benefits and governance resources for directors from around the world.

Who is eligible?

The program is available for members from participating organisations in the GNDI network. To qualify for the GNDI Global Passport, you must be a member in good standing in your home jurisdiction's director institute.

What are the benefits?

This program provides access to benefits from affiliated director institutes at discounted rates. Benefits include subscriptions to member-only publications, online governance resources, special pricing for events and director registry services, among others.

What is the Global Passport advantage?

The GNDI Global Passport will open up opportunities to share experiences, learn from international colleagues and to keep current on business and governance trends impacting boardrooms across the world.

Who are the participating organisations?

Affiliate benefits are available from the following GNDI member organisations:

- Australian Institute of Company Directors (AICD)
- Brazilian Institute of Corporate Governance (IBGC)
- ecoDa, Europe
- GCC Board Directors Institute (BDI), Gulf States
- Hong Kong Institute of Directors (HKIoD)
