2. The General and Special Assemblies of Shareholders shall convene upon an invitation from the Board in accordance with the situations stated in the Companies Law, Its Implementing Regulations and the Company's bylaws. The Board shall invite the Ordinary General Assembly to convene upon the request of the auditor, the audit committee or a number of shareholders holding shares equal to at least (5%) of the share capital of the Company. The auditor may invite the Assembly to convene if the Board does not invite the assembly within thirty days from the date of the auditor's request.
3. The date, place and agenda of the General Assembly shall be announced at least (ten) days prior to the date thereof; the invitation shall be posted on the Company's website, if any, or be sent by registered letters to all shareholders at the said time. The Company may invite the General and Special Assemblies of Shareholders to convene using methods of contemporary technologies.
4. Shareholders shall be granted the opportunity to effectively participate and vote in the General Assembly meetings. The meetings of the General Assemblies of shareholders may be convened and shareholders may participate in their deliberations and vote on their resolutions using methods of contemporary technologies pursuant to the regulatory controls related to Non-Listed Joint Stock Companies.
5. The Board shall work on facilitating the participation of the largest number of shareholders in the meetings of the General Assembly, including choosing the appropriate place and time of such meeting.
6. The Company shall ensure recording the details of the shareholders who desire to attend at the Company's head office prior to the specified time for convening the assembly, unless the Company's bylaw state other means.

Article 14: The Agenda of the General Assembly

1. When preparing the General Assembly's agenda, the Board shall take into consideration the matters that the shareholders wish to list; shareholders holding no less than (5%) of the Company's shares are entitled to add one or more items to the agenda upon its preparation.
2. The Board shall separate each of the matters listed in the agenda of the General Assembly meeting as an independent item, and not combine significantly different matters under one item, and not combine the businesses and contracts in which Board members have a direct or indirect interest under one item, for the purpose of obtaining the shareholders' vote for the item as a whole.
3. The shareholders shall be allowed through the Company's website, when the invitation for the convention of the General Assembly is posted, to obtain the information related to the items of the General Assembly's agenda, particularly the reports of the Board and the auditor, the financial statements and the audit committee's report in order to enable them to make an informed decision in this regard.

Article 15: Management of the Shareholders' Assembly

1. The Shareholders' General Assembly meetings shall be chaired by the chairman, his deputy (if the chairman is absent) or whom is delegated by the Board of directors of its members (when the chairman and his deputy are absent).
2. The chairman of the Shareholders' Assembly shall commit to grant the shareholders the opportunity to effectively participate and vote in the meetings of the General Assembly, and avoid any procedure that may preventing their attendance to the assemblies or the exercise of the voting right. Shareholders shall be informed of the rules governing such meetings and the voting procedures.
3. Shareholders are entitled to discuss matters listed in the agenda of the General Assembly and raise relevant questions to the Board members and to the auditor. The Board or the auditor shall answer the questions raised by shareholders to the extent that does not jeopardize the Company's interest.
4. Shareholders shall be granted access to the minutes of the General Assembly meeting; and the Company shall provide the Ministry with a copy of such minutes within (10) days of the date of any such meeting.

Part 3: The Board of Directors

Chapter 1: Formation of the Board

Article 16: Appointment of the Board Members

1. The Company's bylaws shall specify the number of the Board members, provided that such number shall not be less than three and not more than eleven.
2. The General Assembly shall elect the Board members for the term stated in the Company's bylaws, provided that such term shall not exceed three years. Board members may be re-

- elected, unless otherwise provided for in the Company's bylaws.
3. A Board member shall not be a member of the Boards of Directors of more than ten non-listed joint stock companies at the same time.
 4. The Company shall notify the Ministry of the names of the Board members and description of their memberships within ten business days from the commencement date of the Board term or from the date of their appointment, whichever is shorter, as well as any changes that may affect their membership within ten business days from the occurrence of such changes.

Article 17: Composition of the Board professional capabilities required to perform their duties effectively.

Article 19: Termination of a Board Membership

1. The Company's bylaws shall specify the manner by which membership of the Board may be terminated. At all times, the Ordinary General Assembly may dismiss all or any of the Board members, even if the Company's bylaws provides for otherwise, without prejudice to the dismissed member's right for compensation if the dismissal was on an unacceptable reason or at inappropriate time. The General Assembly may also, as per a recommendation of the Board, terminate the membership of the member who missed three consecutive meetings without a legitimate excuse.
2. Upon the termination of the membership of a Board member by any termination method, the Company shall promptly notify the Ministry and shall specify the reasons for such termination.
3. If a member of the Board resigns and has comments on the performance of the Company, he/she shall submit a written statement explaining such comments to the chairman of the Board and such statement shall be presented to the Board members.

Article 20: Issues Affecting Independence

1. An Independent Director shall be able to perform his/her duties, express his/her opinions and vote on decisions objectively with no bias in order to help the Board make correct decisions that contribute to achieving the interests of the Company.
2. The Board shall annually evaluate the extent of the member's independence and ensure that there are no relationships or circumstances that affect or may affect his/her independence.
3. By way of example, the following negate the independence requirement for an independent director:
 - a. If he/she holds (5%) five per cent or more of the shares of the Company or any other company within its group; or is a relative of who owns such percentage.
 - b. If he/she is a representative of a legal person that holds (5%) five per cent or more of the shares of the Company or any company within its group;
 - c. If he/she is a Board member of any company within the group of the Company for which he/she is nominated to be a Board member.
 - d. If he/she is an employee or used to be an employee, during the preceding two years, of the Company, of any party dealing with the Company or any company within its group, such as auditors or main suppliers; or if he/she, during the preceding two years, held a controlling interest in any such parties;
 - e. If he/she has a direct or indirect interest in the businesses and contracts executed for the Company's account;
 - f. If the member of the Board receives financial consideration from the Company in addition to the remuneration for his/her membership of the Board or any of its committees;
 - g. If he/she engages in a business where he competes with the Company, or conducting businesses in any of the company's activities.

Chapter 2: Responsibilities and Competencies of the Board

 - h. Providing recommendation to the Ordinary General Assembly as to what it deems appropriate regarding:
 1. Using the consensual reserve of the Company, if such has been formed by the Extraordinary General Assembly and has not been allocated to a specific purpose;
 2. Forming additional financial allocations or reserves for the Company; and
 3. The method of distributing the net profits of the Company.
 - i. Preparing the Company's annual financial statements for submission to the Ordinary General Assembly;
 - j. Preparing the Board report and approving it.
 - k. Ensuring the accuracy and integrity of the data and information which must be disclosed;
 - l. Developing effective communication channels allowing shareholders to continuously and periodically review the various aspects of the Company's businesses as well as any material developments;
 - m. Forming specialized committees of the Board pursuant to resolutions that shall specify the term, powers and responsibilities of such committees as well as the manner used by the Board to monitor such committees. Such resolutions shall also specify the names of the members and their duties, rights and obligations and shall evaluate the performance and activities of these committees and their members;
 - n. Specifying the types of remunerations granted to the Company's employees, such as fixed remunerations, remunerations linked to performance and remunerations in the form of shares, without prejudice to the regulatory rules related to listed joint stock companies; and
 - o. Setting the values and standards that govern the work at the Company.

Article 23: Distribution of Competencies and Duties

The organizational structure of the Company shall specify the competencies and distribute the duties between the Board and the Executive Management in accordance with the best practices in Corporate Governance, and to improve the efficiency of the Company's decision making and to achieve a balance of powers and authorities across the Board and the Executive Management, and to achieve this, the Board shall:

- a. Approve and develop internal policies in respect of the Company's business, including specifying the duties, competencies and responsibilities assigned to the various organizational levels;
- b. Approving a written and detailed policy that identifies the powers delegated to the Executive Management, a table stating these powers, means of implementation and the period of delegation. The Board may request the Executive Management to submit periodic reports in respect of its exercise of such delegated powers; and
- c. Identifying the matters on which the Board reserves the power to decide.

Article 24: Separation of Positions

1. Without prejudice to the provisions of the Company's bylaws, The Board shall appoint a chairman, a vice chairman and may appoint a managing director of its members.
2. It is prohibited to hold, at the same time, the position of chairman of the Board and any other executive position in the Company, including the positions of the managing director, the Chief Executive Officer or the general manager, even if the Company's bylaws provided for otherwise.
3. The Board shall define the competencies and specify the responsibilities of the chairman, the vice chairman, and the managing director (if any) explicitly and in writing if the Company's bylaws has no reference thereto.
4. In all cases, no person shall have the sole and absolute power to take decisions in the Company.

Article 25: Oversight over the Executive Management

The Board shall form the Executive Management of the Company, regulate its operating procedures, monitor and oversee it and ensure that it performs the duties assigned to it, and to achieve this, the Board shall:

- a. Develop the necessary administrative and financial policies;
- b. Ensure that the Executive Management operates in accordance with the policies approved by the Board.;
- c. Select and appoint the Chief Executive Officer of the Company, and oversee his/her work;
- d. Appoint the manager of the internal audit unit or department, or the internal auditor and dismiss him and determine his remuneration, if any;
- e. Convene periodic meetings with the Executive Management to explore the work progress and any obstacles and problems in connection therewith, and review and discuss the important information in respect of the Company's business;
- f. Develop standards for the performance of the Executive Management consistent with the objectives and strategy of the Company;
- g. Review and evaluate the performance of the Executive Management; and

- h. Develop succession plans for the management of the Company.

Article 26: Competencies and Duties of the Executive Management

Without prejudice to the competencies entrusted to the Board pursuant to the provisions of the Companies Law and Its Implementing Regulations, the Executive Management shall be responsible for implementing the plans, policies, strategies and main objectives of the Company in order to achieve its purposes.
